The All-New

RX16 Hybrid Caravan

More Space. More Freedom. No Compromise.

The RX16 is built for families and travellers who need more space without sacrificing off-road capability — combining a versatile multi-sleeper layout with proven touring performance.

With full-size bunks, a rear fold-out queen bed, and a practical living layout, it delivers comfort and flexibility for extended trips.

TOUGH BY DESIGN. Engineered for Australian Conditions

Built on a hot-dipped galvanised chassis with independent suspension, dual shock absorbers, and mud-terrain tyres, the RX16 is designed to handle corrugations, remote tracks, and harsh environments.

Advanced composite panel construction with high-density XPS foam core provides strength, insulation, and resistance to moisture and mould.

SETUP / LIVING. Built for Family Touring.

Electric pop-top roof and Awnlux electric awning allow fast, practical setup. The double lounge with swivel table and fold-down seats creates a flexible living space for dining and relaxing.
